OPENS IN NEW QUARTERS

Hank of Commerce and Trusts Doubles, Its Floor Space.

Scores of friends and patrons of the Bank of Commerce and Trusts yesterday attended the formal opening of the institution in its place of business on Main Street, which has recently been enlarged and greatly improved. By tearing away a dividing partition wall the floor space of the bank's quarters have been installed throughout the establishment. The bank is now equipped in a modern and handsome style and the institution is prepared to handle the large increase in business which made necessary the improvements.

The bank's quarters yesterday were prettily decorated with palms and flowers and souvenirs were distributed to the many visitors who came to inspect the new arrangement, and to offer congratulations to the bank's management upon its handsome equipment. The flowers used in decorating the place were sent by various business concerns of the city who are patrons of the bank.

When Senator Cannon was named to succeed Colonel Harwood, there was considerable comment, as it was beconsiderable comment, as it was be-lieved that such an important matter as that of electing a representative of the city in the upper house of the Legislature was too important to leave in the hands of the committee. At that time, however, there was necessity for time, however, there was necessity for proupt action. There is some tall of bringing up the question of a promary before the committee, and of bringing up the question of a primary before the committee, and a warm fight may be made along this line, as there have been three voting days this year and three more are already scheduled.

In the last election, there were nine candidates, Mr. Toney winning the aomination over Captain John A. Curtis by only fifty-two votes. Since that time, Captain Cartis has died, and Mr. Cannon, the seventh candidate, was
